

Message #4
4:9-5:15

Micah

As for me, I look to the LORD for help. I wait confidently for God to save me,
and my God will certainly hear me.

Micah is about How God
responds to unjust
Israelite leaders

How does Micah exalt God and point specifically to the Messiah?

What kind of sin, what kind of injustice, is Micah calling out?

How does leadership, and your leadership in particular, affect people?

How is God going to solve Micah's and the Israelite—and our!—problems?

The background of the slide is a pastoral landscape. In the foreground, a large flock of sheep is gathered on a dirt path or field. The sheep are of various colors, including white, black, and brown. The middle ground shows rolling green hills with scattered trees. In the background, there are more hills under a sky with soft, golden light, suggesting a sunrise or sunset. The overall tone is warm and serene.

The background of the slide is a photograph of a rural landscape. In the foreground, a large flock of sheep, including several black sheep and many white ones, is gathered on a dirt path or field. The middle ground shows rolling green hills with scattered trees. The background features more distant hills under a sky with soft, golden light, suggesting a sunrise or sunset. The text is overlaid on this scene.
